

It's A New "Old World"

It's a wooded countryside bordering a secluded lake with jogging trails and picnic area. It's where children play in complete safety and freedom. Right across the way is Bear Creek Plantation, a truly classic homestead where horses roam grassy hills surrounded by tree lined country lanes. It's "Pebble Hill Plantation Estates," a brand new planned residential community in an old world setting.

Away from the hustle bustle of the city, Pebble Hill residents enjoy quality schools in Grapevine/Colleyville School District while only minutes from DFW Airport and Las Colinas.

Come to these breathtaking homesites in Colleyville and return to the new "Old World."

Showcase In The Country

Pebble Hill Plantation Estates is just what the best custom home builders have been waiting for . . . a perfect setting to showcase the ultimate in quality workmanship and design.
